Who will you be voting for in the 2016 Presidential Election?

Catherine Cross
Freshman Elementary Education Major
(Republican Party)

"I am voting for Trump because to me, Hillary has been in power for too long, and she knows what the masses want and she votes for the masses, not what she says or what she believes in."

Maggie Goldin
Freshman Musical Theatre Major
(Democratic Party)

"I am going to vote for Hillary Clinton because in my opinion, what I think is at least we are going to be going in the right direction with Hillary. I just think Trump is just going to be a dead end."

Jackilyn Fuller
Senior Digital Information Design Major (Undecided Party)

"I'm pretty definite on Hillary Clinton. Mainly because most of the things she is going for, I agree with. Definitely not Donald Trump, and I don't think it is worth it to pick a third-party candidate. "

Savanna Bannio
Sophomore Early Education Major
(Republican Party)

"I am voting for Trump just because of my religious views. I'm a very strong Catholic, and I have to vote with the party that will most support my religious views."

follow us on instagram
@ thejohnsonian

POLICIES • from front

TOPIC	CLINTON	TRUMP	JOHNSON	STEIN
FISCAL	• Create more jobs in 100 days • Make college debt-free • Raise minimum wage • Companies that export jobs give back tax breaks • Make tax shares more fair • Equal pay/paid leave	• Create 25 million jobs • Reduce taxes and cost of childcare out of taxes • Make business tax rate more competitive	• Budget by cutting entitlements and defense • Cut unnecessary laws and taxes that take from the resources businesses require to grow	• Guarantee a living wage job for all. • Set a $15/hour federal minimum wage, with indexing. • Break up "too-big-to-fail" banks and democratize the Federal Reserve.
IMMIGRATION	• More technology and personnel in immigration process • Install more border patrol and sanctuary cities	• Prevent Muslim immigrants from entering U.S. • Cut down on illegal immigration by building a wall • Does not believe in birth-right citizenship	• Make work visas easier to get • One-strike and you're out for legal immigrants who break laws • Share costs of legal immigration between federal and state governmen	• Support immigrants' rights. Create a welcoming path to citizenship for immigrants. • Demilitarize border crossings throughout North America.
HEALTHCARE	• Smaller steps to health care • Believes medicare for all is not feasible • Managed competition vs. single payer system	• Implement universal healthcare • Repeal and replace Obamacare • Expand medicaid • Create V.A. mental health division in order to reduce veteran suicide rate	• Allow states to experiment with medicare and medicaid laws • Wants free-market insurance •	• Eliminate the cancer of health insurance, which adds costs while reducing access to health care. • End overcharging for prescription drugs by using bulk purchasing negotiations.

Above are brief, unbiased, bulleted points of information that are meant to communicate the presidential candidates' main policies to our readers in order for them to decide whom to vote for on November 8. More information can be found at the campaign websites for each individual candidate.